Thank you EYA for connecting us to other organizations and, hence, for helping us further identify and solve the issues of our users! ”

MENTOR

“ Boxwise is addressing a serious problem in refugee camps: the distribution of donated goods to people in need. The unique selling proposition of the project is the real-world experience of the team in a refugee camp in northern Greece. They implemented an open-source web application that solves the challenges volunteers are facing doing their daily business. It's great to see and feel the expertise and passion of the project team members and their goal to have a social impact with the technology they develop. ”

Boxwise is an open-source web application making it easy for organisations to distribute donated goods to people in need in a fair and dignified manner.

Warehouses full of donated goods can quickly turn to chaos. Boxwise makes sure organisations know what they have, where it is, and what they need to restock. No complicated hardware is involved -- only a smartphone.

Boxwise eases the work of volunteers dramatically and helps them to treat people in need as equals. It creates a respectful atmosphere by facilitating distribution according to need, where people are treated like clients, not beggars.

Boxwise can be used in Internet constrained environments. As the project is open-source, long-term support and further development are secured by a large group of volunteer developers.

Boxwise offers organisations a toolbox for receiving, storing and distributing donations through free-shops. The system passed the first implementation test in refugee camps in Greece with flying colours. Boxwise is engaging and inspiring.
